by a set of disorderly persons of agregated on the City Hall steps, attracted there by the lithrant street preachers. A young man named Richard Annies, of No. 35 Elizabeth street, was arrested by officer Haves, charged with disorderly conduct. There were severa hundred percons present during the time of preaching.

Brying the Name of a Brether.—On Sakyday officer Bedite of the Fifteenth ward, arrested a Yuang man named James Cauton charged with forging the vame of his brother, Thomas Cauton of No. 338 Hower, which enabled the accused to obtain one hundred dollars from the Bowery Favings Bank. It seems that on the oth of Beptember, 1863, the accused stole the bank book belonging to his brother, went to the Savings Bank, and there represented himself as Thomas Cauton, presented the book, drew out the one hundred dollars, and forged the name of his brother on the receipt of the money. Since that time he has been absent from the city, and on his return a few days age he was recognized and arrested on the charge. Justice Clark, before whom the accused was taken, committed him to prison for trial.

Before Hon. Justice Green.
LANDLORD AND TENANT CASE.

APRIL 8 — Wellington A. Carter w. B. J. Van Cott and others.—This was a summary proceeding to recover possession of store, cellars, and other tenements, in 178 Greenwich street, for non-payment of $100 rent—being the amount payable on 1st of April for one month in advance. The defendants set up a general denial, and contended that the rent was not demanded. On the trial the landlord produced an agreement signed by defendant. Van Cott, and a witness deposed that he went with a bill for the rent to defendant's store; he there saw Mr. Murray, one of the defendants, and he being engaged, the witness left the bill on the table, and subsequently called and demanded a check without stating for what. The Judge dismissed the application, on the ground that the premises to defendant, and also on the ground that the demand for rent had not been made.

Brady's Card to the Public.—New York abounds with announcements of 25 cent and 50 cent dargerrootypes. But little science, experience, or taste, is requisite to produce these so-called cheap pictures. During several years that I have devoted to the daquerroan art it has been my constant labor to perfect and clevate it. The result has been my constant labor to perfect and clevate it. The result has been my constant labor to perfect and clevate it. The result has been my pictures at the World's Fair in London, the Crystal Palace in New York, and wherever exhibited on efflore side of the Atlantic. Art has always suffered when the public have been deceived by unfounded assumptions of escacemy. A valuable invention is concern, and the production of the concern, and the production of first class pictures: but for these art has at all periods deteriorated. My new gallery, No. 39 Broadway, over Thompson's salcon, contains every facility for the preduction of first class pictures: but for the accommodation of such persons as may desire cheap Mkenesses, I take this opportunity of announcing that I am prepared to furnish daguerreotypes at fifty ceuts and upwards, at my old establishment, No. 208 Broadway, corner of Fulton sireet, where specimens may be seen with the prices affixed; and I will demonstrate that I can produce a better picture for four shillings than any adventurer. Being unwilling to absende any artistic ground to the producers of inferior work, I have no fear in appealing to an engineer of inferior work, I have no fear in appealing to an engineer of inferior work, I have no fear in appealing to an engineer of inferior work, I have no fear in appealing to an engineer of inferior work, I have no fear in appealing to an engineer of inferior work, I have no fear in appealing to an engineer of inferior work, I have no fear in appealing to an engineer of inferior work, I have no fear in appealing to an engineer of inferior work, I have no fear in appealing to an engineer of inferior work, I have no fear in appeal

Holmes' Daguerrootype Card to the People.

—15 has been well said that New York abounds sith 2; sent and 50 sent daguerrootypes, as thousands can testify who have obtained certraits at these prices at HOLMES', who originally introduced the two shilling pictures, in the adopted name of Rees & Co., 29 Broadway. With regard to elevating this art. few men have done more to criginate improvements, to perfect, expedite and ohteapen daguerrootypes, with a system to take 500 pictures daily, and an invention of a deable working camera, capable of taking two yatures instead of one, as hereto fore; and from the fact; fiveing awarded a dioloma and three always made for superiorityes, it ill becomes any rival to claim all the credit and all the respectability, and all the improvements in the art progressing in New York, and at the same time to condescent to stoop from a high position to vindicate the true art by ridicine of those who practice economy for the people, and then to follow in the wake of those designated as adventurers. yearest in stead of one, as here to fore; and from the facts if he ing awarded a dioloms and three silver medals for superior pleturer, it ill becomes any rival to claim all the credit and all the rappoctability, and all the improvements in the art progressing in New York, and at the same time to condessed to stoop from a high position to viadicate the true art by ridicate of those who wake of those designated as advantages.

They sat and watched his bosom heaving,

They sat and watched his bosom heaving,
And softly bent to list his breathing;
And there were tears, and gloom, and sighing,
For that sweet resebut slowly dying.

The ties of earth were almost riven,
And spirit ones from God in heaven
Were watching, clad in robes of whiteness,
To bear the boy to realms of brightness.
And now, the pangs of death all vanished.
From that fair brow the gloom was banished:
No more can pain rend that sweet bosom,
For Peter blooms a heavenly blossom.
